Read the following passage which Reza, an Iranian student, wrote to his friend. There are FOUR mistakes in his writing. Find and correct them.

My neighbor invited me for dinner last week. He is a very person kind. But honestly, he cooks very badly. I wanted to be polite because he is always friendly and generously. Unfortunately, he made tomato soup. I'm not liking tomatoes at all, and I never cook them myself. I felt terrible afterwards, but of course I thanked him polite.

Read the following letter Adrianna sent to her friend Sylvia carefully. Then answer the questions.

Dear Sylvia, Last month was my first time to fly by myself. I was a little nervous, but it was exciting! First, I took a taxi to the international airport terminal. Then, I checked in at the counter and walked to the departure lounge at Gate 64. I was early, so I didn't have to wait a long time to go through immigration and security. I waited in the departure lounge for about 25 minutes. Then, I showed my passport before I boarded the plane. After that, I walked along the aisle and found my seat, and then I sat down and fastened my seat belt. I was lucky because my seat was a window seat, so I could look outside as the plane took off. After a few hours, the flight attendants served us dinner, and then I talked to the passenger sitting beside me. His name was Leonardo, and I was surprised to find out that he was also traveling to London to study English for the summer. Finally, I watched an action movie, and then our plane landed soon after that. It was a great experience, and I made a lot of friends during my six weeks in England. I'll e-mail you again after I fly back to Italy next Saturday. See you soon!

Love, Adrianna
