2	Read the text and answer the questions. Picasso was a famous Spanish artist. He grew up in Spain where he was born on October ٢٥, ١٨٨١. His father was a painter and an art teacher. He helped his son to develop his artistic ability. He liked to draw from an early age. From the age of seven, Picasso had formal art lessons from his father. When he was ١٠, his family moved to Barcelona, where Picasso took an exam to attend a famous art school. The exam was going to take one month, but he finished it in one day! A few years later, he went to another school in Madrid. However, Picasso was bored with the old teachings of art school. He didn't want to paint like people hundreds of years ago. He wanted to create something new. He later moved to Paris, where he worked as an artist and created his wonderful drawings. During this time, he created his famous "Blue Period" works. In ١٩٠٧, Picasso painted a painting, which is known to have been the first painting in the modern art movement. Artists from all over the world travelled there to see this painting. In ١٩٠٧, Picasso began to experiment with a new style of painting. He is best known for creating the Cubism style.
